Public Comments:

Jill Pickard and Gary Haworth spoke in regards to Jill's property that borders the little league diamond at Reed Field. Jill expressed concerns with the number of children that have climbed on her fence and come into her yard. The trash that is left all over her yard is also a problem. She would just like people to respect her property. Terry Hudson said that they would have the little league board meet with the neighbors for some of the concerns. He also stated that they had signs made for the fences. Jill asked if the city could put signs directing people to the little league diamond and parking. Ryan McGriff also stated that the trash is a big problem at his house since it borders the diamond.
