1. Public Comments:

A. Josh Gott- said it was disheartening that the chicken ordinance for the city died due to no motion. He said that since the city would have taken the poultry out of the old ordinance and just did a new ordinance stating 2 chickens each was all that you were allowed that it really opened the city up for people to get other poultry like ducks, etc and they wouldn't be limited to just two of each. He was upset that there was not three reading of the chicken ordinance and that he felt he had wasted all of his and the council's time. Wished the council luck in the future and left.
